Tatted berries

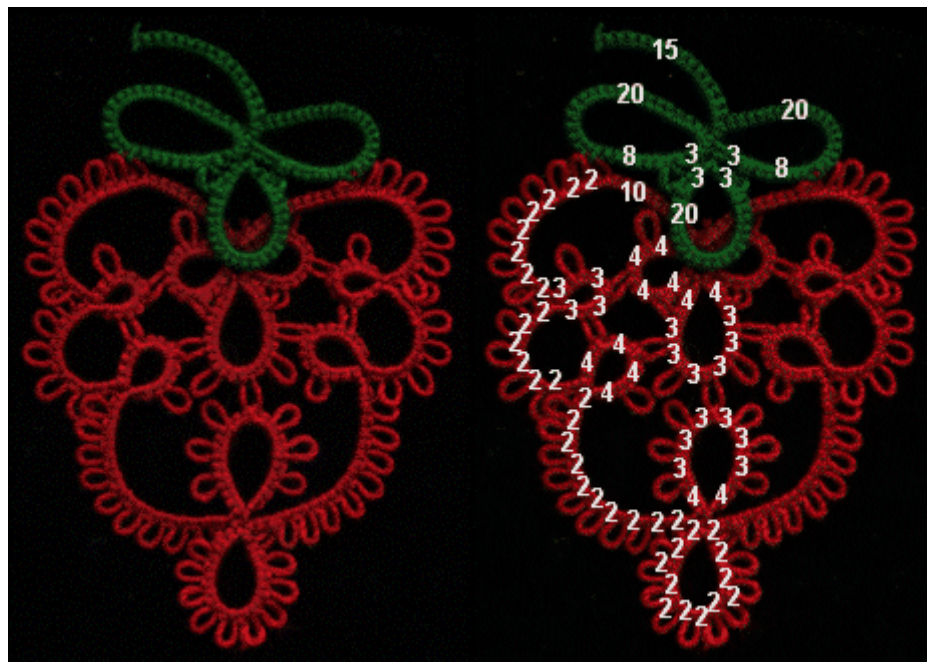

Summer in Colorado brings fresh strawberries to the stores and to the mountains. I designed three berries to celebrate summer here--a raspberry, a wild strawberry, and a domestic strawberry.

These are beginner-level 1- and 2-shuttle patterns using simple rings and chains. They were tatted using DMC Cebelia size 30 thread. Each berry is about 1 to 1.5 inches long.

ds	double stitch	R	ring
p	picot	j	join
Ch	chain	sp	small picot

You will need:

DMC Cebelia thread in red #816 and green #699, size 30
2 tating shuttles
